

REV. RICHARD SEEBODE TO BE INSTALLED HERE

The formal installation of Rev. Richard W. F. Seebode as minister of the Pacific Unitarian Church, 1610 Adams Ave., will be held at this Sunday's 11 a.m. church service.

Visiting Unitarians participating in the installation ceremonies will be Dr. John Howland Lathrop, minister emeritus of the First Unitarian Church, Brooklyn, N.Y., and Victor V. Goff, executive secretary of the Pacific Coast Unitarian Council and Regional Director for the American Unitarian Assn.

Also participating in the program will be Glenn L. Goff, minister, Seventh Day Adventist Church of Torrance.

Mr. Goff will charge the congregation with its responsibilities while Dr. Lathrop will charge Mr. Seebode with his responsibilities.

Earl Fenton of Hawthorne, chairman of the church board of directors, will conduct the installation, and William Marion, R.I., Louisville, Ky., and in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a graduate of Meadville Theological School and the University of Chicago.

MR. SEEBODE is the first full-time minister of the church which was formed a year ago. His part-time predecessor was the late Dr. Harry Shuler.

The new minister was formerly with Unitarian Churches in Bingham, Mass., Providence, R.I.; Louisville, Ky., and in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a graduate of Meadville Theological School and the University of Chicago.
